DEFINITIONS for reference when calculating Net Invoice Value

1. Net invoice value means the gross value of sales of all UK-manufactured ceramic products. When calculating this value, please follow the guidance below:

	Further information
Exclude factored sales (finished items bought in from another manufacturer or source of supply and sold on other than as the product of the member company) But, include ceramic products purchased from other members of the British Ceramic Confederation (BCC).	A list of members is available here .
Exclude the cost of ceramic products purchased from other members of the BCC.	This is to prevent 'double counting' costs and sales between members of BCC.
Exclude Value Added Tax.
Exclude carriage, insurance and freight on goods sold.
Exclude trade and cash discounts and rebates.
Exclude allowances or credits for goods and containers returned or overcharges.
Include outsourced partially manufactured product finished in the UK and sold as the product of the member company.
If you have any queries about how to calculate net invoice value, please contact soniam@ceramfed.co.uk at the British Ceramic Confederation.
